

The LBJ Library and Museum and
Education Service Center, Region XIII present
IT'S A MATTER OF CIVIL RIGHTS
a symposium for high school teachers at the LBJ Library on June 14 and 15, 2010

The symposium will feature

- Bernadette Phifer, Director of the George Washington Carver Museum and Cultural Center in Austin. Bernadette participated in the March on Washington and was at Selma during the 1960s.
- Additional speakers from the Fort Worth Regional Archives, the Roosevelt Library, the Truman Library, the Eisenhower Library, the LBJ Library, the Ford Library, and the George H.W. Bush Library

Primary source materials will be featured in related topics.

Cost of the symposium is $100 and includes all materials, a CD of all primary sources, and breakfast and lunch for both days.

To Register online go to <http://ecampus.esc13.net>

Use the Workshop ID SU1017010