

Cen-Tex History Fair Rules

- To be eligible for advancement and awards, all student participants must be present at the Cen-Tex History Fair to answer judges' questions. Exceptional circumstances will be considered at the sole discretion of the Cen-Tex History Fair coordinator upon reasonable notice prior to the fair.
- Each school may sponsor up to five (5) project entries for each of the group and individual categories (i.e., 5 papers, 5 group exhibits, 5 individual exhibits, etc.). Any ties which would cause a school to exceed this 5-entry limit per category must be resolved at the school level.
- Students must operate and set up their own media, exhibits, and props as specified in the NHD Contest Rule Book.
(http://nationalhistoryday.org/02_contest/frameb_02_c.html)
- Students must bring four (4) copies of the written materials required by the National Contest Guide (i.e., process paper and annotated bibliography) to the Cen-Tex History Fair.
- All registration materials and fees must be submitted to the Cen-Tex History Fair no later than Tuesday, February 1, 2005.
- Students are must read and follow all of the rules contained in the NHD Contest Rule Book.
(http://nationalhistoryday.org/02_contest/frameb_02_c.html)
- Special Rules for students entering the Historical Paper category:
 - Paper writers must be prepared to be interviewed at the Cen-Tex History Fair if they are finalists. Finalists will be notified of their selection prior to the fair.
 - Paper writers must submit four (4) copies of their papers and annotated bibliographies with their registration materials and fees by February 1, 2005.